Guidelines for Authors

The demand of continuous academic improvement has urged scholars to do research and share knowledge in writing. Widya Mandala Graduate School accommodates these academic scholarly needs by providing the journal entitled Beyond Words.

This twice-a-year, refereed, journal accepts a wide variety of both theoretical and practical manuscripts around the following fields:

1. Language Education
2. Applied Linguistics
3. Curriculum and Instruction

Submission Guidelines

1. Articles submitted to this journal follow the APA Publication Manual with specific technical writing standards as follows:
 - a) Manuscript must be typed in MS Word, using Times New Roman, 12-point font.size.
 - b) Heading and sub-headings follow the APA five levels (See Table 1).
 - c) A header "Running Head: THE SHORT FORM OF THE TITLE" is typed on the first page. On other pages, the header becomes "THE SHORT FORM OF THE TITLE."
2. The journal covers four sections: teachers' voices, current issues, research reports, and book reviews.
3. Criteria for acceptance:
 - a) new insights and authenticity;
 - b) no plagiarism and self-plagiarism
 - c) clarity, significance, and relevance.
4. Submission: Send your article with
 - a) a cover letter mentioning the name(s) of the author(s), title of the manuscript, names and contact info for all authors;
 - b) abstract (200 words);
 - c) manuscript: (a) research reports (5000-10000 words). (b) Perspectives no more than 3000 words, (c) classroom tips and book review no more than 2000 words including tables, figures, references and acknowledgments, if any.

For the purpose of a blind review process, please do not write your name or other identities on the manuscript.
